

Scholarship Recipient TESTIMONIES

"Receiving this scholarship means the world to me – your scholarship allows me to focus more on school and less on the stress of paying for school and daily expenses. With work not being guaranteed due to COVID-19, this couldn't have come at a better time. Thank you all so much. I can't thank you enough."

"I can't explain how incredibly thankful I am to be awarded this scholarship and honored that I was selected out of those that applied. Thank you so very much for making it possible for me to finish strong at Valley City State University. It helps me not have to worry financially about how I am going to be able to finish paying off school and other college expenses. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

"I am a mother, wife, nurse and student right now. This scholarship makes a huge impact on my life. This scholarship is going to allow me to focus on school and have more time with my family. I am going to be able to enjoy my time with them because my financial concerns have been decreased exponentially. I want to give a sincere thank you from both myself and my family for this scholarship."
