

Dear North Carolina Resident:

It's time to take action for ourselves, our families, our community, and our great state. Poor nutrition and lack of physical activity are taking a significant toll on the health of our citizens and our communities. It has been estimated that $11.1 billion dollars is being spent per year on medical and lost productivity costs in NC due to physical inactivity, poor nutrition, overweight and obesity.

According to Dr. Bill Dietz, MD, PhD, Director of the Division of Nutrition and Physical Activity at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), "...North Carolina is one of our nation's leaders in developing an initiative to move communities to adopt healthy eating and physical activity policy and environmental changes in an effort to prevent and combat rising trends in obesity and other chronic diseases."

You can join this initiative and take action today! Adopt the sample physical activity policy on the reverse side of this sheet and use it in the following ways:

- Share it with your faith organization and encourage a policy that supports physical activity in a variety of ways.
- Share it with your employer and encourage a worksite policy that supports physical activity breaks at meetings, designated walking routes or other activity opportunities, and flexible work schedules to allow physical activity.
- Share it with the variety of community groups in which you may be involved.
- Take the pledge to be physically active and encourage your family members and friends to join you.

Building Healthy Communities in North Carolina...State and Community Partners
Partners within the NC Department of Health and Human Services and the NC Division of Public Health, along with multiple state and community partners have joined together to create the Eat Smart, Move More...North Carolina initiative. Visit the initiative's website www.EatSmartMoveMoreNC.com to locate potential partners and learn about additional ways to get involved.
